We have some challenges ahead also and with help from the membership we will sort them out. Please continue to attend and participate in the meetings and enjoy fellowship with like minded people.

THANK YOU to all the members that worked so hard at the the Creole 43 events through out the past year. As always feel free to contact myself or any of the board members with your concerns, ideas, questions, etc.

Member Highlight

Terry Downs is currently acting President of Creole Chapter 43. She has been a member of National Association of Watch and Clock Collectors since 1987, also joining Suntime Chapter 19. Terry apprenticed in clock repair at Stan Good Clocks in Tampa, Florida, for two years, starting out polishing brass, which is the lowest point of horology restoration. She was a Charter member of Gulf Coast Timekeepers 151 in Tampa, Florida. After joining Chapter 43, she jumped right into coordinating the Field Suitcase Workshops, with Joel Dunipace as the instructor. In 2004, Terry opened Full Moon Clock Works in Bay St. Louis, MS, and has been keeping clocks ticking all over the Gulf Coast ever since. There is a lovely write-up on her in the Bay St. Louis Old Town Home website baystlouisoldtown.com and her website fullmoonclockworks.com. Terry is an active Creole member and encourages other Creole43 members to be active, keeping our group going.

We will be highlighting different members in every newsletter. Come to the meeting and put your name in the hat to be drawn during the business meeting. See you there!
